

Questions

1. Is it a criminal offence to sell fake goods at a market?

2. Is it a criminal offence to buy fake goods at a market?

3. What should you do with an email offering a big cash prize that asks you to send a small sum to register your name?

4. A company sees that you're advertising to sell your car and says it has 35 potential buyers that they can put you in touch with for a fee. What should you do?

5. What does a 'T' in a classified advert for a second-hand car stand for?

6. If a car is clocked what does that mean?

7. An advert gives you the chance to earn extra cash by making jewellery at home from kits. The company wants a deposit of £50 for the kits. You enjoy crafts and could do with the cash. What should you do?

8. Name two metals that must be hallmarked?

