

shop around

Scenario 10

Helen buys a doll's pram for her niece's Christmas present and arranges to collect it on Christmas Eve. Two weeks before Christmas, she finds that the child's granny has also bought a similar pram. As the pram didn't leave the shop Helen thinks she should get a refund. Instead, the manager offers her gift vouchers.

What should she do?

