

shop around

Scenario 11

Helen buys shoes for James, her 11-year-old son. When she gets home, she is pleased that they fit but disappointed that the style does not suit. When she tries to return the shoes to the shop, the manager refuses to give a refund, replacement or a credit note.

Is the shop manager right to do this?

